¶63.16 MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT—
U.S. ARMS CONTROL AND DISARMAMENT AGENCY

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. HUTTO, laid before the House a message from the President, which was read as follows:

To the Congress of the United States:

I am pleased to transmit the United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency Annual Report for 1991.

The report provides information about the nature and significance of treaties signed during the year, the conduct of arms control negotiations, the coordination of treaty implementation procedures, and other activities conducted pursuant to the Arms Control and Disarmament Act, as amended.

The international security environment, which has changed considerably since the submission of last year's report, continues to evolve. Our bilateral arms control agenda, including the START treaty that is reviewed extensively in Chapter 2, continues. At the same time, our efforts to curb proliferation and deal with the regional conflicts have been expanded, and the implementation of the growing number of existing treaties and agreements has become more demanding. The work of arms control, therefore, is expanding.

As our defense program reorders its priorities, our arms control program is doing the same as a consequence of the changed East-West relationship.

GEORGE BUSH.

THE WHITE HOUSE, June 2, 1992.

By unanimous consent, the message, together with the accompanying papers, was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

And then,
